FINANCIAL & COMMERCIAL.

EURDAY EVERTER, June 30, 1865 The struggle between the bulls and bears in gold. araid in favor of the former to day, a change partly brought about, it appears, by the passage of a resolution in the gold room, engineered th ough by the bulls, requiring all contracts due before next Wednesday to be settled to morrow, thus foreign the bears, should they decide to yield, to take in their shorts under the greatest dissivantages, and they can find lenders at a favorable figure until Wednesday. A considerable rise is therefore prob-able until the speculative contest is dicided, when the market may be expected to reced, again. The rate closed this afternoon at 140% The New York Tribune has the feitewing. "The demand for du ties is profecing a large accumulation in the Sub-Treasury, and helps sp-culators for a rice materi-ally. As there are no large payments on account ury to sell gold, or anticipate the November con heep gold at quits a high figure." The local money market in 'es steady. There is an improvement in the demand for surreucy from wool buyers, but a proportionate felling off in oth ular. There is no essential improvement in the and firm at previous quotations

The Circinnati (ommercial of this merning has the following:

We were to-day shown a telegram arm We were to cay anown a sategram armorating a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. by the Western Union Triegraph C mpany, to be paid on the 15th of Au u t. This the Company do, we are informed, after an expenditure of $1,200,000 for the year of may line or wire. The sales of 7-30's by the Second National Bank to day amounted to $14,400.

The advance of gold to day did not check the downward moveme t of Breadstuff, in New York, and a further dec ine was established. In this market business was light. Flour sold in a small way at a dec lue of Me. Ho. I red wheat fell of fc, and a sale of 1 car No. I red was much at a de-cline of ite from the lowest figure a previously reported. Corn declined 3c. Oals were withe quotable change, but closed weak. In Provisions we nate a decline to day of 500 7 bbt on City Mess and $7,00 per bbt on Clear Pork -

Sucked Meats unchanged and arm. The sotivity in Hems and Dried Beef is still noted, and there was a much improved demand for Lard to-days both city and country-rendered. for Butter at unchanged prices, Eggs are scare and better.
